About us

Aceware comes from the esteemed house of Shilpa Enterprise (Mumbai), one of India's leading manufacturers of stainless steel products. Over the course of 40 years, Shilpa Enterprise has established itself as a pioneer as well as a reliable player in the market. It reflects in their long-term partner relationships and the unwavering trust their clients have in them.

Legacy

Taking forward this legacy, Aceware was founded with a passion for and an inherent knowledge of manufacturing high-quality stainless steel cookware. Today, Aceware offers premium kitchenware products for the Indian as well as export market.

Innovation

What sets Aceware apart is its commitment to innovation and excellence in design, functionality and quality, all at an affordable price. Our ambition is to empower home chefs with products which are premium, safe, easy to use, durable and hygienic.

Customer Service

Aceware is dedicated to providing unmatched service to its partners, clients and customers, continuously monitoring and meeting their evolving needs. We promise on-time deliveries for a hassle-free partnership. Driven by a strong consumer-focus and innovative spirit, Aceware has appointed distributors across key markets in India and is aspiring for a larger share of the market. Aceware has an integrated (all under one roof) state-of-the-art manufacturing facility in Vasai, the hub for utensils manufacturing in Mumbai. We meet the highest safety standards for our workers and employees.
